Congratulations!

*Let us help you make your special day all you always hoped it would be.
Your big day... Your perfect partners*

Your Venue

Slice of India offers venues to suit all your needs and your budget.

The Slice of India restaurant can accommodate up to 400 guests and the Slice of India Banqueting Suite can accommodate over 750. Big enough to accommodate all those you wish to share the day with, but maintaining that attention to detail and personal touch that ensures you and your guests have a day to remember. The venues offer easy access from all over the country boast large parking facilities and easy disabled access.

Your Catering

Slice of India has an excellent team of expert chefs each with their own specialities. Each Chef has a wealth of experience in a particular area of Indian Cuisine and will be pleased to discuss your requirements and ensure they are met to the highest possible standards. We offer an extensive menu to choose from and once your date is booked you will be invited to a tasting session to finalise your wedding menu. Live cooking stations are available at both our venues.

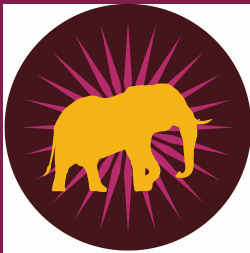

Outside Catering

Slice of India also offers outside catering service so even if you have already booked your venue elsewhere Slice of India's food and service can still be part of your big day and pre-wedding events. We offer a range of packages and from informal buffet to the full formal wedding meal which can be tailored to all tastes and budgets.
